

NEWS IN NOTES

VOL: VI Iss: 5 JONES COUNTY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY SEPT/OCT 1990
P.O. BOX 174, ANAMOSA, IA 52205

Dear Members,

The heat at the Homecoming game in Springville reminded all of us of the last months of summer. Not only was it hot in Jones County, but our county experienced flooding that affected all of our river communities. It affected Anamosa by flooding their sports fields. The Anamosa football field is coming back slowly. The communities of Olin, Oxford Junction and Stone City had property damage also.

Now it is hot again and the Wapsipinicon river is very low. Fall has begun in Jones County. The leaves are turning colors and Anamosa is celebrating the Ryan Norlin Memorial Pumpkin Weigh-off. This weekend huge pumpkins will be brought to the Lawrence Community Center in Anamosa to be weighed. The Great Pumpkin will be chosen! People coming into Anamosa will be able to see the changes in the store fronts along mainstreet.

 1. Typed and indexed. 2. Typed, not indexed. 3. Canvassed but not typed 4. Partially canvassed or being proofed. 5. Not canvassed or misplaced/untyped or lost.

 "DEATH OF A JONES COUNTY BOY, Corporal Wm. J. Rudisill, of company C, 49th Iowa, died of typhoid fever at Havana, Cuba, March 28th. The remains were sent to Cedar Rapids where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rudisill, reside. The funeral services were held on Monday, conducted by Rev. J. M. Rudy, of the Christian Church, assisted by Dr. Green, and the burial was with military honors. The deceased was a young man of of the highest character and the universal esteem entertained for him was evinced by the large concourse of veterans, Co. C members and those who previously belonged to that company and citizens generally. Mr. Rudisill was a grandson of the late John Rudisill, well known among the pioneers of Highland Grove. He was born in Olin and was about 22 years of age..."

MINI - ANCESTORS

This summer I met three sisters at the Anamosa library. They were in town from out of state, (Oklahoma and Arizona) to research RICHARD and THANKFUL DURGAN. Richard had been killed in the Civil War. A young son, (their grandfather?) had been with Richard in the war. What I learned was that Thankful had been a Civil War nurse! Later Thankful married EMERY HOLMAN. They are buried at South Mineral cemetery. Anyone wishing to correspond about the DURGANS should write Wanda Hatfield, 509 N. Taylor, Enid, OK 73703. The other sisters names were: Glendora Rogers, Rt. 2 Box 630, Welch, OK 74369 and Dorothy Kennedy (Mrs. Gilbert Jr.), Box 67, Wendon, AZ 85357.

Need information on HENRY W. and NANCY COOK KOHL. Ruth Hanson, Rt. 1 Box 85, 723 Esmann Island, Guttenberg, Iowa 52052.

"Amos Kohl 1831-1909 is a brother to our great-great grandfather, Henry F. Kohl, born Feb 1818 in Penn. Henry F. Married Mary Hoover and they had ten children. One of the ten was our great grandfather Henry Kohl Jr. born 27 Dec. 1842 and married Nancy Cook at Anamosa on 23 Aug 1865. Henry Kohl, Jr. died 10 April 1907 and death record at Anamosa shows he was buried at White Oak Grove - undertaker was W.H. Crain of Olin, Iowa."

Karen Isaacson, 27991 Caraway Lane, Saugus, CA 91350, would like to correspond with anyone interested in ZIGLER, MERRILL, and CLARK. Note: There are Clarks in the Madison Center Cemetery book: A., Alexander, Betsy Ann, James, John and Stephen.

Mrs. Kenneth L. Hanson, 445 Woodside, Hinsdale, IL 65021 would like RICHARD WATERBURY who died at the county home in Scotch Grove on 23 Dec. 1939. He lived in Onslow and Scotch Grove and is buried in Wyoming. She would also like to know where ISOBELLE (DAVIS) STUDEBAKER WATERBURY is buried? Richard is the only Waterbury listed at the courthouse in the death file.

*We have a new member, Donald H. Juilfs, 105 W. Treehaven Dr., Lincoln, NE 68521. "Elizabeth D. Perryman, of Amber, Iowa, died at the home of her daughter in Chicago, Ill., Jan. 23, 1896, aged 70 years. She was born in Queensbury, N.B., in 1826. She was married in 1847 to Luke Perryman, who preceded her to the spirit world seventeen years. Six children were born to them, all of whom survive her and mourn their loss. She came to Jones county thirty-seven years ago and settled on a farm near Amber. She joined the M. E. church on probation four years ago and lived a bouyant, trustful life. She was a good neighbor, careful of her words, that she might not offend the finest sensitive feeling. She was well known and highly regarded, and her friends observed with sorrow her failing strength.

She was visiting her daughter in Chicago when she was taken sick, and gradually failed, till the vital cord gave way and she fell asleep. She was unconscious the last three days of life, till just before the end came, when she rallied, knew her friends, bade them all good-bye and died peacefully.

She was brought back to Amber for burial. The funeral services were held at the M. E. church at Amber on Sunday, Jan. 26, 1896, at 2 o'clock p. m., Rev. J. N. Blodgett conducting them assisted by Dr. A. S. Palmer. A large congregation assembled and followed her to the cemetery and laid her away to rest. J. N. Blodgett."

There were thirty-four burials in 1903. The increase is partly due to the larger number brought in from other communities.
