VOL: VI ISS: 6 JONES COUNTY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY NOV/DEC 1990
P.O. BOX 174 ANAMOSA, IA 52205

Dear Members,

We are now heading into a new year. We will be nominating and electing new officers for the coming year. It is time to renew your interest in the society and help determine its future.

SUGGESTIONS FOR THE COMING YEAR.

- *A renewed committment in the society. (You make a difference.)
- *A different meeting date that takes into consideration seasonal changes and member's schedules.
- *A new location for the Resource Center on ground level. Add another day to the Resource center schedule, with different members who man it.
- *A quarterly newsletter with same amount of pages as two bi-monthly newsletters. Have a team of 2 members in charge of the newsletter doing it quarterly at a time.
- *Additional adds or articles in the newspaper.
- *All research monies to go to the researcher. A research log book, that accounts for the research coming into the society.

Loren Horton, representing the Iowa Humanities Board spoke at our last meeting. His slide presentation was entitled, "This is Your Heritage." It was all about the changes that Iowa and Iowans are going through. The changes included the changing countryside, ecology, and farms of Iowa and the impact these changes have on our personal identities. We no longer can identify ourselves with the stereotypical Iowa farm, because it no longer exists in the manner that we remember.

These changes impact both our own identity and that of our children. How our children define themselves will depend on what we leave as our legacy.

This is how I interpreted his talk. His slides were beautiful. Loren brought forth the dilemma of our changing times.

Sincerely, Elizabeth J. Coleman

Several months ago June Morrow and I went in search of a cemetery that Ed Biggart had told us about. We consulted with a local farmer and drove back down the road a bit. The hills were muddy and slick with ice. After missing it the first time, we doubled back and found the burial site.

Appearing off the base which was almost covered with mud, the front part of the marker was clearly visible with an initial "N". It was flat, off its large base. Further research indicates that the following man is also buried or memorialized at Forest Hill cem. (?)

Museum receives postal collection, machine guns

The Jones County Historical society received a very unique postal collection and two World War I machine guns Sunday, July 23, at its regular meeting at the museum.

The postal collection, purchased from the estate of the late Dr. C. J. Nemmers, a long-time Anamosa dentist, contains over 80 letters and postcards mailed to and from many of the post offices in the county. Most of the post offices no longer exist.

One of the rarest and most valuable pieces of the collection is a letter post-marked from Edinburg on Nov. 27, 1843.

The letter is a report on taxes assessed and paid in Jones county in 1843 submitted to the territorial auditor by the clerk of the county board of commissioners.

The letter stated that the total in tax collections for the year was $16.77.

Also with the collection is a list of the "ghost" post offices that Nemmers had researched by 1955. The list contained one post office outside of the county but the rest were all in Jones county.

Those he found were Amber, Argand, Bloomfield, Big Woods, Blue Cut, Bowen's Prairie, Bowens, Buffalo Mills (also known as Fisherville), Cass, Cass Center, Castle Grove, Clayford, Clay Mills, Condit, Downersville, Duane, Edinburg (known first as Jonesville), Fairview, Fuller's Mills, Garfield, Grove Creek, Highland Grove, Hale Village, Isabell, Johnson, Madison, Marshfield, Oxford Mills, Pamaho, Pierce, Stone City, Temple Hill, Viroqua, Walnut Fork and Zurich.

Several of those listed above are known now by different names such as Marshfield and Pierce, which were prior names for post offices or settlements at the present site of Wyoming.

Of those he listed in 1955, Dr. Nemmers had collected cancellations from 12 of the offices.

The "ghost offices" included in the collection are Edinburg, Walnut Forks, Bowen's Prairie, Clay Mills, Fairview, Castle Grove, Oxford Mills, Stone City, Viroqua, Isabell, Hale Village and Cass Center.

A letter sent from Walnut Forks on Feb. 18, 1863 was addressed to "John H. Prichard, Esq., Greenwood, Dakota territory." Prichard was a member of Company C of the 14th Iowa Volunteer regiment which was involved in fighting Indians in the Dakota territory during the Civil War.

Another very unique and valuable letter is one sent from Anamosa sent to Iowa's first governor, Ansel Briggs, on Feb. 7, 1849.

There are very many other letters from the early years of existing offices. The earliest from Anamosa is in the 1840's.

With the collection, Dr. Nemmers wrote brief histories on the post offices. Another history of post offices and settlements was written recently by Gus Norlin, Monticello, and published in the Jones County Historical review.

Norlin lists some post offices that Dr. Nemmers did not have in his list of 1955. Together, Dr. Nemmer's collection and histories and Norlin's survey of post offices and settlements, provide a good source of postal and settlement history of the county.

The collection was presented to the society by Norman Erickson, Cedar Rapids, a friend of the Nemmers family and a postal collector too.

The collection is contained (Please turn to back page)

Postal collection---

NORMAN ERICKSON, Cedar Rapids, presented the Jones County Historical Society with a postal collection Sunday, July 23, at the society's museum. The collection was purchased by the society from the wife of the late Dr. C. J. Nemmers, a long time Anamosa dentist. Mrs. Nemmers currently lives in Oelwein. The collection includes postmarked materials from many of the post offices that no longer exist in the county and materials from all of the offices that are still operating.

GEORGE GRANT BOTHWELL

George Grant Bothwell was born October 4, 1856, in Jones county, Iowa, and passed away at Ainsworth, Nebraska, March 14, 1934, at the age of 68 years, 5 months and 10 days. He grew to manhood in Iowa, and came to Cherry county about forth-five years ago and took a homestead in the southwest part of the county.

On April 11, 1898, he was united in marriage to Isabel Finlayson at Ainsworth, Nebraska. To this union two children were born, one having passed away. In 1901, they moved to Keya Paha county, near Mills, and have continued to reside there.

Mr. Bothwell has gone through the pioneer struggles to develop this country, and has seen this section of Nebraska develop from a wild, unsettled country to its modern state of progressive agricultural life. Another pioneer has gone from among us.

He is survived by his wife and one son, Millert, and together with them, other relatives and friends grieve at his passing.

Funeral services were held at the home Friday, March 16th, conducted by Rev. O. D. Hoagland, pastor of the M. E. church in Ainsworth. Interment was made in the Ainsworth cemetery.

Mrs. Lydia Cox, 69, died March 13 at her home near McGraw, New York following an illness of a few weeks.

The funeral service was held Monday March 18 at Hall's Funeral Home in McGraw, with Rev. G. A. Fairbank, pastor of the Baptist Church of McGraw, officiating. The body was shipped to Ainsworth for burial. A brief service was held at the Jessen Funeral Home Thursday, March 21, by Chas. J. Bissey for the family residing near here, and the body was laid to rest in the local cemetery.

Mrs. Cox was born at Olin, Jones County, Iowa on December 15, 1863 and was the daughter of John and Caroline Sealy Bothwell. She later moved with her mother to Fairbanks, Iowa, where she was married to Butler W. Milks in 1887. Eight children were born to the couple, five of whom survive.

Mr. and Mrs. Milks later moved to the cattle country of Nebraska and located in Cherry County, which was then 90 miles from the railroad. The couple made their home there for 11 years and accumulated a large herd of cattle and horses. In 1899, they went to Brown County, near Ainsworth, where Mrs. Milks owned a tract of land consisting of 1,120 acres. After the death of two of her children, Mrs. Milks sold the ranch and went to Canada where she located at Shining Bank, Alberta.

Later she resided at Newell, South Dakota, where she married Geo. Cox in 1925. She went to McGraw, New York with her son and family and engaged in dairy farming until a year ago when her health failed her.

She is survived by her son, Clarence Milks of McGraw, four daughters, Gertrude Teupel of Yankton, South Dakota, Vera Luther of Broken Bow, Nebraska, Lillian Lanman of Norfolk and Percie Lapp of McGraw. She also leaves a brother, John Bothwell, and one sister, Mary Allen.

OBITUARY OF MRS. EMMA ROONEY

Emma Massingham Rooney, daughter of Robert and Margaret Massingham, was born in Wheeling, West Virginia, on July 20, 1868. Her death occurred at the home of her brother-in-law, George F. Gordon, at Olin, Iowa, on February 2, 1924.

When but a child her parents moved to Iowa and settled on a farm west of Olin. In the parental home she grew to womanhood, and on October 23, 1885, she became the wife of W. W. Rooney. Two children came to bless them, a daughter and son, the daughter dying in infancy and the son, James Rooney, passed to the other world several years ago. Her husband died in 1898.

The life of the deceased was spent largely in the vicinity of Olin, and during these years many acquaintances learned to value her friendship. In early life she united with the St. John's Reformed church and continued that relation the remainder of her life. During the past few years her home was in Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Those who mourn her death are two grandchildren, Harold Rooney, of Waterloo, Iowa, and Mrs. Earl Ross, of Cedar Rapids. There are also left one sister in California and three brothers in Waterloo. Besides these there are many friends who join their sincere sorrow with the bereaved relatives of the deceased.

Funeral services were held at the home of the brother-in-law Monday afternoon, Feb. 4, conducted by Rev. James Balla, pastor of the M. E. church. A number of relatives and friends gathered for the service in spite of the stormy weather. Comforting hymns were feelingly sung by Mrs. Nellie Stivers and Mrs. Fred Switzer. On the close of the service, the body was conveyed to the Olin cemetery for burial.

THURSDAY, MARCH 2, 1899.

Sudden Death of Mrs. J. A. Peet.

The community was shocked to learn of the death of Mrs. Julius A. Peet, which occurred at half-past three yesterday afternoon. She had been ill less than twenty-four hours, complaining at times of quite severe pain in the pit of the stomach. At a quarter past three she drank a cup of tea and felt quite comfortable, her husband, on her request, going to the bank to transact some business. Fifteen minutes later she quietly breathed her last. Miss Lena Hubbell who was with her supposing at first that she had fainted. The blow falls heavily upon her husband, to whom she had been married nearly fifteen years, and her son, Mr. L. E. Tucker, the jeweler.

Stingley Obituary

Bert L. Stingley was born Feb. 7, 1874 at Sigourney, Iowa, and died Feb. 13, 1937, at the age of 63 years and 6 days at his home in San Diego, Calif.

He spent his early years of life at farm work, working for as little as 50 cents a day. He spent his evenings studying and after working very hard was able to pass examination for teacher, keeping this job for about 7 years.

He later started in the grocery business in Morley where through his honest dealing and determination he became a very successful merchant. For a little more than 30 years he owned and operated a general store in Morley. In 1928 the Stingley family moved to San Diego, Calif., where they could be near their eldest daughter, Lola, who was a musician in that city.

Mr. Stingley then established a store at 4127 Monroe St. with his home adjoining the store. The store was known to all as the "Friendly Neighborhood store", due to the kindness and friendliness shown to the many customers by Mr. Stingley. He made new friends with the same loyalty, honesty and free heartedness that had won for him so many true friends in Iowa.

He leaves to mourn his passing his beloved wife, Elva E. Stingley; two daughters, Lola L. Palmer and Velma M. Myers of San Diego; one grand-daughter, Velma June Myers, who was the pride of his life; three brothers, D. D. Stingley of Reno, Nev., Logan Stingley of Cedar Rapids, Theodore Stingley of Tipton; and one sister, Mrs. Eva Vernon of Olin, besides other relatives and a host of friends. He was preceded in death by a brother and sister.

John Newton Yount was born at Attica, Ind., August 13th, 1845. He moved with his parents to Illinois in infancy. In 1853 the family moved to Fairview, Iowa, and to Anamosa in 1863. In 1867 he was married to Miss Elizabeth Hollenbeck. He moved with his family to Dubuque, Iowa, in 1886, where he has since lived. He leaves a wife and seven children, two having died in infancy. Those now living are Mrs. Ed. F. Smith, Newton, Charles, and Mamie, (now Mr. Gus Peterson), Fred, Earl and Nellie. His mother, one sister and two brothers also remain to mourn his loss. During the winter Mr. Yount had a severe attack of grip which hastened his end. The funeral services were held Friday at 2 p. m., at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Ed. F. Smith, all the members of the family being present, including his aged mother. Rev. W. E. Glanville conducted the services, assisted by the choir of the Baptist church. Interment was at Riverside cemetery.

THANK-YOU!!! To Lloyd & Carol Brown of Brownsville, Texas. They visited our Resource Center recently and made a sizeable donation! It was also nice to meet Wilma Brown of California, who accompanied them. They are researching James & Louann Secrest Brown who were in Jones County 1852 - 1867.

Congratulations on all November & December Birthdays & Anniversaries.

IN SYMPATHY!!! We were sorry to hear that Jan Wenndt has lost her mother.

REMEMBER: Our meeting is scheduled for the 3rd Tuesday, December 18, 1990. It will be held at the Resource Center. WEATHER PENDING!

HAPPY HOLIDAYS!!!
