OFFICIAL PAPER OF CITY AND COUNTY.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 4, 1900.

THE U. S. SENATORSHIP.

Newton Journal: If there ever was a people thoroughly and overlastingly weary of any one thing, it is those of Iowa over the United States senatorial snarl. In some counties a dog fight can occur without the sympathy of the voters on being determined by the fact whether the owner of the dog is a Gear or Cummins man. Everything in county, state or national politics is made to pivot on the senatorial question. It is a matter that should have been settled, as it has been in the past by the legislature, and not made a local question, but the newspapers of Des Moines have forced it to the front and kept on forcing it, until it has grown as stale and offensive as a mackerel ten days out of the water lying under an August sun. Thank fortune, Jasper county Republicans were shrewd enough to keep out of it, and are now correspondingly happy.

The Republicans of Jones county had sense enough to refrain from making any demands or exacting any pledges as between the two gentlemen named. What we desired, first of all, was to put up good men for senator and representative and then elect them, trusting that their sound sense and knowledge of public sentiment would be sufficient to guide them when the time for action on the senatorial question should come. So far as there was any public expression in the county convention that nominated Mr. Sokol for the office of representative it was for Gear, and the general sentiment of the party in the county, we believe, as between Gear and Cummins, is almost wholly for the gentleman first named, though for various reasons, it is not very pronounced. With all his faults we would rather vote for Gear if he was as old as Methuselah than vote for the other man. In a campaign in which the Republican party was making one of its greatest fights and was in need of leaders of backbone and courage and conviction, A. B. Cummins deserted us and publicly advocated the election of Horace Boies, the man who not only stood for a wide-open policy in the interest of the liquor dealers but, worse than the bird that defouls its own nest, went to New York and in a public address slandered the commonwealth that stands at the head of all the corn-producing states of the Union ment by the British war department in providing hospital facilities, provisions, ammunition, guns, etc., etc., and in these particulars we are having the Spanish-American war over again, only ten times worse.

—The court of contest has finished the work of examining the ballots cast for sheriff at the late election in Grundy county. The board of supervisors found in the official canvass that J. W. Pepperman, Democrat, had one majority, J. W. Morrison, Republican, contested, and under the findings of the court of contest he wins out by a majority of fifteen votes.

Iowa congressmen, as naturally might be supposed, were not forgotten by Speaker Henderson in the assignment of good positions on the committees. The member from the fifth, Mr. Cousins, is chairman of the committee on expenditures in the Treasury Department, is third on the committee on Foreign affairs and is on the committee on the election of President.

—The term of ex-Governor Larrabee as member of the board of control will expire next June and he refuses a reappointment. Among those talked of as his successor are Dr. Frank C. Hoyt, superintendent of the hospital for the insane at Mt. Pleasant; A. F. Meservey, of Ft. Dodge, and A. B. Funk, of Spirit Lake.

—On the 1st the new road between Davenport and Clinton was opened for business. It is known as the Davenport, Rock Island Northwestern.

AN OLD-TIMER.—Last Saturday we received a very pleasant call from Mr. John Ryan, oldest son of the late Ira B. Ryan. Mr. Ryan is brother to Mrs. Orrin Harvey and Mrs. George Soper and has had a pleasant visit with those families as well as that of Mr. John Chopper, his cousin, who has been nearly helpless for five months with paralysis. The Ryans came to the county in 1844, locating on what is now the Matt. Cheshire place, the intervening owners having been H. C. Metcalf and Sammy Snyder. John says he helped haul the rock and the sills for what was then known as Fisher & Son's stone grist mill, now called the Buffalo Mills. This was built in 1852 and 8, we think. John went to Appanoose county in 1855, returning in the fall of 1854, remained a year, then returned to Appanoose and in 1864 moved on a farm in Decatur county. Last spring he retired and his home is now in Leon, having a splendid 200-acre farm and 90 acres of timber as a source of income for his remaining days. John is now 68 years of age and his family consists of a wife and eleven children, ten of the latter being grown and out in the world for themselves.

Mr. Ryan informs us that he hauled the first load of groceries ever brought Anamosa. They were for Mr. Harry Mahan, who is remembered by only a few of the earlier settlers. Harry at the time had his store in the residence on the corner of Main and Iowa streets and his family lived in the shed part. This residence still stands and is occupied. H. C. Metcalf lived there many years, John Foxall ditto and it is now owned by Mr. T. E. Watters. Mr. Mahan afterwards built a small store nearer Main street and a little south and Mr. Metcalf was his successor, buying out Mahan in 1848.

John relates that his father, Ira B. Ryan, was once foreman of the grand jury at the old Edinburg county seat and that they held their deliberations under the trees for want of a better jury room. He and his son Matthew were in the 6th Missouri cavalry and Thomas, another son, was in the 8d Iowa in Judge Mudgett's company. Matthew died in Decatur county last spring at the age of 63.

Mr. and Mrs. Arno accompanied John on his visit, Mrs. Arno's maiden name being Kate Ryan, John's sister.

2000 dues are now payable. Dues not paid by March 1st will not receive newsletter

A HAPPY EVENT.

Marriage of Mr. Thomas J. Lister and Miss Marie E. Carper.

At the residence of Mr. A. H. Newman, two miles east of Martelle, Iowa, Jan. 1, 1900, Mr. Thomas J. Lister, of Anamosa, Iowa, was married to Miss Marie E. Carper, of Olin, Iowa, Rev. Benj. W. Soper officiating.

The bride is well and favorably known in this community, having taught school for over eight years in Jones county, and this being her second year in the grammar department of the schools at Olin. The groom is one of our prosperous young farmers, living near Anamosa. After spending a few days at Olin they will be at home to their friends at the home of the groom. The sincere good wishes of their numerous friends go with them, and the EUREKA desires to be included in this expression of high regard. Mr. and Mrs. Lister are most worthy people and are deserving of a most happy future.

A CALIFORNIA VISIT.—Last March Miss Josie Chapman was given leave of absence by the school board of Des Moines, where she is teaching, and accompanied her father, Mr. Carlos Chapman, to Pasadena, California, in answer to the urgent request of a cousin of Miss Chapman. She returned in time to enter on the fall term of school, beginning in September, and is now spending her vacation with Anamosa friends. It is possible she may return to California, as her health is much better in that climate and her father, though 70 years of age, is so hale and hearty that he thinks nothing of trudging off on a jaunt of five or seven miles. Mr. and Miss Chapman have met D. A. and George Peet and their families, R. B. and Mrs. Condit, Mrs. Dimmitt, Miss M. A. George, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Martin and Miss Cella, and on Miss Chapman's return she visited Mr. Moore Briggs' family. We regret to learn that Mrs. Briggs, formerly Miss Jennie Chapman, of Anamosa, is in extremely poor health. Miss Sarah Fiske is at Dr. Blakeslee's, but as the family is some distance out of town Mr. and Miss Chapman did not see them.

PERSONALS.

Mr. H. C. Metcalf is confined to his bed to-day with a bad cold.

Mrs. Dr. Skinner is on the sick list.

Mr. S. C. Hall and his sister, Mrs. Clarke, visited their sister, Mrs. Perry Smith, at Hopkinton, a few days ago.

Mr. Frank Fisher is getting about quite well with a cane and came down on the street this morning. Considering what he has gone through with, he is looking remarkably well.

Mr. Schoonover came down town yesterday and to-day and, though-looking pale, is feeling quite comfortable.

Rev. Father Gorman, of Dubuque, officiated at St. Patrick's church last Sunday in place of Rev. Father Power. The latter is improving and is able to sit up.

Mr. Charles Harvey returned to Knoxville, Tenn., a week ago and his sister, Miss Jennie, took the train Monday evening for Des Moines.

Mr. Harper Smyth and little Helen went to Washington, Iowa, to visit his mother last week.

Mr. Dudley McCarn has been at home for a few days and is booked for the season for work on the road in the interest of the McCormick reaper company. His son Brayton also returned a few days ago from Ohio.

The Misses Kittie and Hattie Carver and Jessie Merchant leave this morning for a visit with Misses Lena and Ida Osborne at Anamosa.—Marion Cor. C. R. Republican.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Port and family spent New Year's at Olin with Mr. Will Port and had a jolly time.

Miss Nellie Bruce, of Cass, is spending the week in Anamosa.

"The Royal Neighbors" were entertained by Mrs. Judson Lawrence this week.

Miss Lola Soper entertained some of her young friends Wednesday evening.

Mr. G. L. Yount is able to get out once more, although his sickness pulled him down a good deal, his old army wound in the side being one of the most serious complications from which he suffered.

Mrs. Allen Sanford arrived this morning from Salt Lake City, owing to the critical condition of her mother. Mr.

Mrs. Allen Sanford arrived this morning from Salt Lake City, owing to the critical condition of her mother. Mr. James Sheean, after a short stay, has returned to Omaha.

Mrs. Feehan spent New Year's in Cedar Rapids, and returned Tuesday, accompanied by Mrs. Goodhue, of that city, and she will visit here a week or two.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. P. Hartman planned and executed a surprise party on them New Year's night, it being their 35th anniversary.

Miss Kate Hines and Miss Nellie Bruce spent Thursday in Martelle.

Mrs. H. W. Sigworth has been ill with a cold.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Tarbox have moved into the house just vacated by Mrs. Goodman, who has rented the Foley house just vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Waite.

Mr. Petelna and family have moved into Mr. Kaufmann's house, formerly owned by Mr. F. S. Dunklee, and earlier by Mr. Gould P. Dietz.

County Superintendent Clifford Paul is in Anamosa.

KICKED IN THE FACE.

Mr. Matt. Cheshire Has a Narrow Escape from Instant Death.

Last Sunday morning Mr. Matt. Cheshire, living about a mile east of town, was kicked on the right side of the face by a horse as he entered the stall in the barn. He was taken to the house and his son, Dr. Cheshire, of Marshalltown, who fortunately was visiting the family, applied remedies to stop the hemorrhage. Dr. Hejinian arrived as soon as a messenger could bring him. The cut was about six inches long, the bone over the eye being crushed and pressed in so as to cause the eye to bulge out, but fortunately the latter was not ruptured. Pieces of the bone were taken out and the brain relieved of pressure. Mr. Cheshire is steadily improving, his condition being very promising to-day. If the hoof of the horse had struck an inch or two higher the blow would have been fatal. Mr. Cheshire's many friends will be glad to know that he escaped and that the outlook is so favorable for him.

Rev. James B. Tims, of Alickchil, Checotah Nation, I. T., says of Beggs' Blood Purifier, the great blood remedy and system regenerator: "Both myself and wife were entirely cured of bad cases of scrofula by it." A guaranteed remedy, of sterling merit. Brown's Drug Store.

OBITUARY.

Lucy Alma Dial was born in Linn county, Buffalo township, March 30, 1875, and resided there until she was married to Edmond Patnode, February 5, 1893. Of this marriage one child, Violet, was born April 28, 1898, and died June 29, 1899. Mrs. Patnode was taken sick in February, 1898, with measles, resulting in consumption which finally carried her off. After much suffering patiently endured, she departed this life on Friday last, December 20, 1899. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. E. Glanville on Monday, with interment at the Perkins cemetery. Mrs. Patnode is survived by her husband; her mother, Mrs. Boyles, of French Ridge; one sister, Mrs. Clara Peet and one brother, Mr. Frank Boyles, of French Ridge.

There is much sympathy especially for the husband, who within six months has buried his only child and wife.

—Mr. Fred Lawson, in the business at Olin and formerly a partner in Mr. R. W. Johnson's grocery store, is assisting the latter in closing up the express business preparatory to a transfer of the American agency to Mr. J. H. Beam, at the furniture store. Mr. Johnson retains the agency of the United States company. We are glad to hear that Mr. Lawson is well pleased with his business at Olin and is doing well.

The board of supervisors is in session. Proceedings next week. The board passed a snappy resolution on Gov. Larrabee's report on the poor farm which will be of especial interest to our county readers. It is as follows:

We wish to further report that while we have not the conveniences for caring for our inmates that the counties having more modern structures have, we claim that the individuals are as well cared for and fed as any other county in the state, and we invite comparison by anyone who does not come riding a hobby as did the member of the board of control, ex-Gov. Larrabee.

"One Minute Cough cure is the best remedy I ever used for coughs and colds. It is unequalled for whooping cough. Children all like it," writes H. N. Williams, Gentryville, Ind. Never fails. It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. Cures coughs, croup, hoarseness, croup, pneumonia, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. Its early use prevents consumption. F. E. HIS LIFE JOURNEY ENDED.

One of Jones County's Oldest and Most Highly Esteemed Citizens, W. F. Arnold, Goes to His Reward.

William F. Arnold was born in Hendrix county, Indiana, Dec. 30, 1828, and fell asleep at 4:40 A. M., Dec. 29, 1899, only lacking one day of being 71 years old. Mr. Arnold was confined to his bed for five months and always bore his sufferings patiently. His life was like a summer's day always sending forth its refreshing rays. Mr. Arnold was taken worse Thursday, Dec. 21, and continued to grow weaker until the messenger of death called him hence, when peacefully he fell asleep without a struggle. Peace to that earthly tabernacle, for its keeper hath flown to the realms beyond.

Mr. Arnold moved to Jones county, Iowa, in 1849, and here he has since resided. On Nov. 13, 1852, he was married to Miss Orphie Alspaugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Alspaugh, of this county. Their union was blessed with seven children, four sons and three daughters. Two sons and one daughter have preceded the father to the realms beyond. The wife, two sons, William F. and Samuel S., and two daughters, Mrs. Emma A. Packard and Mrs. Jennie M. Quinn, together with their adopted daughter, Mrs. Minnie Clothier, are left to mourn the loss of a loving companion and a kind father, whose place cannot be filled. Mr. Arnold has been a friend to the friendless and a helper to the helpless, and a noble citizen. "To know him was to love him." Those who knew him best loved him most and appreciated him best. Like the artist whose hand is lifeless and whose voice is still but whose masterpiece yet speaks to the world of his true worth, so Mr. Arnold, who has painted a picture on the canvass of life, although his hand is cold and his voice is silent in death, still speaks to you by word and deed and his memory will cheer you on through life's journey. He has built a monument of character that shines far more resplendent than gold, and is more enduring than any other earthly treasure. Character is something within the reach of every true man and woman. There is a royal realm where every man is king and every woman is queen if they but wear the royal diadem of character, bejeweled with the shining gems of truth and virtue which are far more fair and fadeless than any other earthly crown. All the words that I might speak to-day could not speak one-half so eloquently as the presence of so many friends with their expressions of sympathy and love.

To you, dear mourning friends, there is a realm where the rainbow never fades, where the sun never sets, and God's children shall bask in the sunlight of his love forever and ever. In the words of the poet:

"We'll miss thee a thousand times, along life's weary track,
Not a sorrow or a joy but we shall long to call thee back,
Yearn for thy true and tender heart, long thy bright smile to see,
For many dear and true are left, but none are quite like thee,
Not upon us or ours the solemn angel hath evil wrought,
The funeral anthem is the glad evangel, the good die not;
God calls our loved ones, but we lose not wholly what he has given,
They live in thought and deed as truly as they live in Heaven."

The funeral was held at the Christian church, in Martelle, at 11 A. M. Sunday, and the remains were interred in the Forest Chapel cemetery. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. W. S. Johnson, pastor of the Christian church, in the presence of a large audience.

The pall-bearers were C. H. Ormsby, James Armstrong, David English, Chas. Chapin, C. L. Holcomb and A. D. McConaughy. * * *

A CARD.

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to the many friends and neighbors who have so untriflingly helped during the long illness and for many expressions of sympathy manifest at the death and burial of husband and father.

MRS. W. F. ARNOLD AND FAMILY.

FROM ANOTHER CORRESPONDENT.

AMBER, Ia., Jan. 23, 1900.

There was a dance at Polly Hinds' on New Year's night.

Mrs. James Livingston and Mrs. F. L. Serbousek, of Center Junction, were callers at Mrs. Peter Robertson's last week.

There was a surprise party at Mr. and Mrs. John Bailey's at Center Junction on New Year's night, about twenty persons being present. Mr. and Mrs. Bailey were presented with two very nice rocking-chairs. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Robertson and Frank Smith, of Amber, attended and said it was a time long to be remembered.

Our school began again Tuesday morning, after a week's vacation.

Mr. Arnold was one of the earliest pioneers of Greenfield township, locating there when it was a wide and almost unoccupied prairie, over which we saw the fires sweep annually during the later forties. Mr. and Mrs. Arnold suffered all the privations and discomforts inevitable in those days, but they, as did many other sturdy pioneers, helped lay the foundation of the best state in the Union, and their lives of industry, economy and uprightness can never be forgotten by those who follow them. Mrs. Arnold, we understand, will sell the house and lots in Martelle and close out her personal property next Saturday, preparatory to removal to Manilla, Ia., where she will make her home with her son Wm. F., Jr. After living in the county over 50 years it will not be an easy thing, we fear, for her to leave the old associations and bid good-bye to many friends, even though she will have a good home and every comfort with a prosperous son, whose kindness we have no doubt she most heartily appreciates.

—Mr. and Mrs. James Milne, of Monmouth, Ill., have been visiting for a couple of weeks with the family of their son-in-law, Mr. W. W. Bray, of Cass, where a new Christmas boy arrived on the 19th ult., and also with relatives and friends in Wayne and Scotch Grove townships. Mr. Milne reports that they are still turning out stump-pullers, some extra heavy ones having been sold to government contractors on levee work on the Mississippi.

In March, 1894, Mr. Milne and his son James, Jr., went to New Orleans and took in the sights. The Maine happened to be anchored near the city and they with many others went on board one day. Mr. Milne observed the sailors and gunners and, being patriotically inclined, shouted: "Three cheers for our American seamen." The first was rather weak, the second stronger and the third a general cheer. Mr. Milne shook hands with several, saying he was "proud of the defenders of our country, and that there was no telling how soon they would be called upon to fight for her," an utterance almost prophetic in the light of subsequent events. A handsome fellow, giving his name—which Mr. Milne regretted afterwards that he could not recall—thereupon offered to show Mr. Milne and his son over the ship, an invitation, it is needless to add, that was most gladly accepted. Mr. Milne's interest in the Maine and the fate that afterwards overtook that noble warship and her gallant crew in Havana harbor, naturally enough, was greatly intensified by his pleasant experiences on board that vessel.

"I can highly recommend Beggs' Hair Renewer as a pleasing restorative application for the hair and a sure cure for all scalp diseases."—Mrs. J. Whertle, Omaha, Neb. A thoroughly reliable preparation; endorsed by thousands.—It will not disappoint. Brown's Drug Store.

AMBER ATOMS.

AMBER, Ia., Jan. 3, 1900.

Willie Sanford returned from a week's visit in Chicago Monday evening.

Mrs. D. Wentworth, of Clinton, was visiting friends in Amber and Anamosa last week.

John Elridge has been enjoying a visit with a brother who lives at Eulston, Ill.

Miss Pearl Green, of Anamosa, is visiting relatives at Black Oak this week.

Harry G. Davis attended the lyceum here last week. He is attending a Presbyterian college at St. Paul, Minn., and was visiting his parents at Center Junction during the holidays.

Mr. James Straney has returned to Chicago, after a month's visit with his sister, Mrs. Alex. Robertson.

Phil. Daly was in Chicago last week.

Horses, like everything else, seem to bring good prices. Herman Danmann sold a team of draft horses recently for $300.

We understand that Gene Lewis has rented the Bigler farm.

Will Daly shipped two carloads of hogs yesterday.

ONSLOW ITEMS.

ONSLOW, Ia., Jan. 3, 1900.

Mrs. John Stickley and little daughter, of Monmouth, spent New Year's with relatives in town.

Little Miss Mae and Master Ray Hoffman, of Springville, are visiting in town with their aunt, Mrs. John Johnston.

Mr. John Sokol is home from his medical studies at Chicago enjoying a short vacation.

Miss Bertha Alexander left for Fayette Monday morning, where she will attend school during the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Paul were Wyoming visitors Tuesday.

The young people enjoyed a dance at the opera house last Friday evening. The Mandolin Club, of Manchester, furnished the music.

The Presbyterian prayer-meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Florence Franks last Thursday evening.

Mr. C. L. Waldo will close out his large stock of new groceries at cost for the next ten days. After that time what is left will be shipped.

Mr. Scroggie has returned home from his trip to Colorado.

WYOMING CLEANINGS.

WYOMING, Ia., Jan. 2, 1900.

Mrs. Price Williams and baby Jean, of Strawberry Point, have been visiting in the home of her brother, H. N. Fordham, for a week or so. Price came down Saturday night and stayed over New Year's day. Mrs. Williams and the baby accompanied him home this morning.

Ward Blakely, wife and baby returned to their home in Norway, Iowa, this morning, after visiting during the holidays with their parents.

The Hawthorne Club gave a "railroad sociable" at the opera house last Wednesday evening. A large number of invited guests were present. Schamgl and Franks provided the supper, and the evening was a most enjoyable one to those present.

Mrs. Dr. Kirkpatrick entertained the Kensington club very delightfully on Thursday afternoon.

Miss Minnie Vaughn started for Mt. Vernon this morning, where she will enter Cornell College for the winter term.

Mrs. Bert Tourtellot entertained a small party of friends in a most charming manner at her home last Friday evening.

Mrs. H. N. Fordham gave an "English tea" on Saturday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Price Williams.

Mr. Martin Lamm, of Omaha, is calling on old friends in town.

Wm. Palman's clothing store was broken into last Wednesday night about 1 o'clock, and over $125 worth of goods stolen. There were two burglars, and the night watchman, Delf Johnson, succeeded in capturing one of them in the alley back of the store, but the other one managed to get away. They had entered at the front door by means of a key and had taken a few things from each pile of goods, again covering them as they found them. They dropped the stolen goods in the alley when Mr. Johnson and his revolver appeared upon the scene. The man captured was tried the next day and sent to Anamosa. He plead guilty.

A. G. Brown is in Anamosa on business to-day.

CASS COMMENTARIES.

CASS, Jan. 1, 1900.

Miss Georgia Lake has been having the German measles.

H. H. Monroe, of Anamosa, was a visitor in Cass over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Lake and little Mildred and Mrs. Falcon, all of Waubeek, spent a few days last week with Mrs. Emma Lake.

Little Johnnie Shaffer has the scarlet fever and the members of the family are quarantined.

Diedrich Herron has moved onto the H. H. Monroe farm, in the vacancy caused by the removal of Will Hubbard onto the George Preston farm.

Miss Nettie Page spent her holiday vacation with friends in Des Moines.

There is a new boy in the family of W. W. Bray, and he seems to have come to stay. Congratulations.

A goodly number of the young people of Cass were invited to spend the evening with Mert and Jess Hanna recently. The evening was a most enjoyable one, the boys being assisted by their sister, Mrs. Lura Brown, and the three made a trio of entertainers not to be beaten.

Miss Viola Brown, of Monticello, is a guest of her aunt, Mrs. Wm. Ketcham.

Sunday evening a short Christmas program took the place of the Christian Endeavor meeting. Many of the children who were to have taken part in the exercises were kept away by the cold weather, but the program was very good, notwithstanding the necessary omissions.

Mr. Conderman, of Illinois, has been spending the holidays with his daughter, Mrs. Frank E. Plume.

Jess Hanna has gone to Minnesota, where his brother Bert has a position on a railroad. He expects to find employment there. We wish him success.

Miss Hattie Ketcham is visiting her uncle and family at Grundy Center.

Mr. and Mrs. James Milne, of Monmouth, Ill., are spending a week or so at W. W. Bray's.

Mrs. J. L. Tarbox, of Hanover, Kansas, was a guest of Mrs. W. G. Condit last week. Mrs. Springer and Mrs. Wood were also recent callers at the same place.

Miss Etta Alderman, of Anamosa, is a guest of the Misses Mildred and Edith Ladd this week.

Etta Burwell, of Anamosa, is spending a few days with Miss Bess Condit.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Griffith and Bennie are visiting friends in Clinton this week.

Miss Maude Bowers, of Anamosa, is visiting her friend, Miss Nello Bruce.

Mr. Williams, of Cedar Rapids, is assisting Mr. Cresswell in holding evening meetings at the Congregational church this week. Mr. Cresswell's school duties made it impossible for him to be here during the week of prayer, so it was decided best to hold the meetings while he could be with us.

W. A. Hale has returned from his eastern trip, where he was called by the death of his aunt, Mrs. Graves, of Meriden, Conn. Mrs. Graves had been a visitor in the homes of Mr. Hale and her niece, Mrs. Arthur Hanna, several times, and by her general presence had made many friends among the Cass people, as she did wherever she went.

Miss Teina Oltmanns has been spending a few days in Wayne township, and while there attended the wedding of a friend at Sand Spring.

G. G. Ketcham and George, Jr., spent several days last week at Springville.

Mr. W. H. Brownell, of Hale, was a business visitor in town last Saturday.

Mr. Wm. Port and family, of Anamosa, partook of New Year's dinner at the home of Dr. F. W. Port.

We see by the Chicago Record of last Saturday that H. S. Hooker, father of Rev. A. H. Hooker, former pastor of the U. B. church at this place, had the misfortune to be in the wreck on the Union Pacific railroad in Colorado last Thursday morning. Mr. Hooker was accompanying his son's goods to the latter's new home in Colorado and the train was run into by the Union Pacific fast mail. He received a severe cut upon the head, and we understand is in a critical condition. Whether the household goods were damaged we have not been able to learn.

HALE MUSINGS.

HALE, Jan. 1, 1900.

We are having snug winter weather, sure enough, and it makes one keep close to the stove.

Mr. Ward Kent, of Olin, was a visitor in "Bonerville" the past week. W. D. Carroll and family spent Christmas with Mrs. Carroll's mother, Mrs. Wolf, of Olin, and Ward returned home with them. The little fellow gets tired of city life and longs to be in the country where he can expand his lungs. Who can blame him? Ward and his cousins went hunting rabbits the other evening after school. In about an hour they came back with a rabbit and a fox. The fox measured from tip of tail to end of nose 3 feet and 0 inches, and was 1 foot and 3 inches high.

Rev. Piersol is to begin a series of meetings to-night. We wish him God speed and hope he may be the means of bringing many souls to Christ.

Mr. Courtright, of Oxford Mills, is lying very low, with not much hope of recovery. Also Mr. George Fields, of the same place. Both gentlemen are getting well along in years, but would be sadly missed in their community and by their friends abroad.

We understand that Mr. Samuel Jeffreys, living near Oxford Mills, has been very sick, but is now "on the mend."

Clarence Freeman, of Olin, is a visitor in "Bonerville."

Miss Myrtle Mcoure, of this place, who is attending school at Oxford Junction, is spending vacation during during the holidays at her home.

A young lady knocked for admittance at Mr. Wallace Mott's door, the other evening and, of course, he took her in and gave her shelter. Now she claims him as "pa."

Mr. George Whitten has returned to his home at Sabula.

Wishing you all a happy New Year, we bid you
ADIRU.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Griffith and Bennie are visiting friends in Clinton this week.

Miss Maude Bowers, of Anamosa, is visiting her friend, Miss Nellie Bruce.

Mr. Williams, of Cedar Rapids, is assisting Mr. Cresswell in holding evening meetings at the Congregational church this week. Mr. Cresswell's school duties made it impossible for him to be here during the week of prayer, so it was decided best to hold the meetings while he could be with us.

W. A. Hale has returned from his eastern trip, where he was called by the death of his aunt, Mrs. Graves, of Meriden, Conn. Mrs. Graves had been a visitor in the homes of Mr. Hale and her niece, Mrs. Arthur Hanna, several times, and by her genial presence had made many friends among the Cass people, as she did wherever she went.

Miss Tona Oltmanns has been spending a few days in Wayne township, and while there attended the wedding of a friend at Sand Spring.

G. G. Ketcham and George, Jr., spent several days last week at Springville.
